

Back to School

MADLIB

It's that time of year - meet the _____ . We showed up early and _____ managed to find the _____. My _____ _____ was not so _____. They learned their _____ did not have a class they wanted and they began to _____ .
We decided it was probably best to leave, but as we turned to go, we ran into the _____, who was _____ concerned my _____ was now _____. We explained what the _____ was and we were able to find a solution. Once things were rearranged, _____ would be added to the schedule and all would be _____. With everyone in a better _____, we decided to stay and go to the _____ for the pep rally. The staff _____ for everyone there and our school mascot, the _____, gave out free _____ to all of the students. It ended up being a great way to _____ with our community. We can't wait for _____ to start!